

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is illegal. Campaign ads are supposed to be paid for.

Sinclair is attempting to use the public airwaves free of charge to broadcast a partisan message. How dumb does Sinclair think we are?!

I don't want Sinclair to use my tax dollars to provide free campaign messages for any candidate unless Sinclair provides that opportunity to all candidates.

"Stolen Honor" is a not-even-thinly-disguised negative ad. Sinclairs' behavior shows why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Yours truly,
